Academics
Students of the hostel are showing a growing interest in their academics. Many of them have a better idea of which streams to take up after high school. Parents too have shared that they find their children more disciplined and focussed.

Cultural Activity
Celebrating rituals and festivals have broadened their exposure to Indian culture and tradition. Children decorate the hostels, light lamps, paint rangolis, perform plays and savour sweets and savouries. Their childhood years were devoid of such celebrations due to poor economic conditions.

Awareness
The hostel is solar powered. Children are made to understand the value of non-renewable energy resources. When these children interact with their family and friends at home, they spread the message and help create awareness. Empowering rural India is our goal and children can be the best messengers.

Soft Skills
Many a time donors and volunteers visit the hostel. This gives our children an opportunity to come out of their shells and build their communications skill and personality. In turn, this has also helped strengthen the bond between them as they try to help each other to better their skills.

Environment
We use Solar Energy at our hostels and in the process are leaving green footprints in a small space. All the 52 children enjoy gardening and vie with each other in a healthy way to see whose plant is growing better.

Leisure
Children have started spending time in the library. When we initially set up the library, it was quite a challenge to motivate them to develop the habit of reading. But now they enjoy it. Many of them are into sports and indulge in outdoor sports especially on Sundays.
Academics

All the 24 students living in the hostel are showing a growing interest in their studies. They do their homework regularly and have been fairing well in their periodic examinations at school.

Alumni

Across all our hostels, our alumni have found their own direction. Shubham Sharma from this hostel is about to complete his B. Com this year. Alongside his studies, he helps the students in the hostel in their academics. Interestingly, he also gives tuitions to other children and this gives him an earning of Rs. 25,000 per month.

Celebration

Be it Founder's Day, Diwali, Holi, Independence Day or Ganesha Chaturthi or a birthday, they make sure they enjoy every moment with their friends in the hostel.

Awareness

Students are made aware of crisis management and sustainable development through various camps, workshops and interaction with volunteers and donors. Some of them made a first-aid kit for themselves and their friends after a workshop in their school.

Innovation

Education broadens the mind and triggers it to think new and different. Dilkumar who lives in the hostel and also helps in the operations, is a tech buff. He created a 3D animation in a few hours video which otherwise takes 100 man-hours to make.

Yoga

Yoga helps them in their physical and mental well-being. Its regular practice is helping them do better in all activities.

Environment

Students are encouraged to clean the hostel and its surroundings. The hostel has serval trees surrounding. The students water the plants in the garden in front of the hostel and get very excited when the flowers bloom and the vegetables grow.

Academics
Children of the hostel are showing a growing interest towards academics. They come back home after school and sit down with their books to do their homeworks in the evenings.

Celebration
Not just festivals, we celebrate birthdays of the children in most of our hostels across India. Celebrating festivals and rituals is a way that would teach children to appreciate their rich Indian traditions and culture. Be it Diwali, Holi or Ganesha Chaturthi it ushers the children of the hostels into a world of joy, colours and knowledge.

Environment
The solar energy panel installed in the hostel has enabled to conserve electricity to a large extent. When these children go back and talk to their friends and family, awareness of sustainable methods spreads.

Health
A health camp was organised for all the 38 students living in the hostel. Since they come from economically poor backgrounds, we are giving them nutritional salts to free them from deficiency of micro nutrients and minerals.

Donor Visit
Many of our donors spend time with our students in the hostel. They say that they are inspired by their genuine curiosity and aspiration to do better in life.
Academics

The library has become a small heaven for the kids. Initially staying away from it, the students have now started spending more time in their world of books.

AIM for Seva Free Student Hostel for Boys, Sindhudurga, Maharashtra

Academics

All 42 boys did exceptionally this time and scored an all time high.

Library

This facility has inculcated the reading habit amongst the youngsters and some of them are eager beavers when it comes to heading straight to the library to pick a book and find a spot to settle down with it.

Moral Studies

Values are inculcated through stories and anecdotes that enable deeper impact on the young minds.

Sports

Students love cricket and football. They also like chess. We encourage the children to spend a substantial amount of free time outdoors.

Competitions

Aditya Petule won the first prize in a biscuit eating contest. We conducted an art competition at the hostel to encourage students to take up some form of art or the other, that they can connect with.

Wellness

Yoga has become a habit for these boys and they are up and about and ever ready for a session.

Prayers

Prayers are conducted every day to instill trust and confidence, which helps them face life better.

Academics
Children enjoy reading books in the library. They read comics, fiction and books on Indian mythology and folklore.

Morning prayers
Everyday in the morning one would hear sounds of chants and devotional songs from the hostel. We have incorporated morning prayers as a routine. This has helped them improve their concentration, be more disciplined and also learn the rich values of Indian culture.

Meals
We have started to incorporate multiple micronutrient fortified salt in their food. This salt is enriched with iron, iodine, vitamin A & B12, folic acid and zinc and would ensure better health of the children.

After School
The computer centre in the hostel has proved very beneficial. Students have been glued to the computers to learn the basics and use the facility at best for the improvement of their academic performances.

Environment
Children are engaged in productive activities like gardening and cleaning the surroundings of the hostel. When they go to their villages during vacations, they take this learning and spread it in their communities. Parents have also reported the children’s involvement in spreading awareness and feel overwhelmed by their change of behaviour and learning.

Academics
All 54 students showed outstanding performances this academic year.

After school educational support has proved to be a boon to these children. It has enabled them to feel more at home with their studies and this is visible in the confident way in which they tackle their studies.

Extra-Curricular Activities
The children are encouraged to indulge in art and music. This nurtures the young brains and moulds them to be more flexible and adaptable.

Sports
A balanced approach that places the physical and mental activities on an equal scale is taken. It is equally important for the children to work as it is to play.

Wellness
Yoga is an integral part of daily life at the hostel and the students enjoy the sessions and look forward to it.

Prayers & Moral Studies give the children inner strength and a fair outlook.

Gardening
The garden patch is all green and clean. It is tended to with love and care by the children of the hostel. They ensure the garden is free of litter and clear of weeds and optimally watered.

Academics
Academic performances of students have bettered over the years. Students now find it easier to follow instructions and do their home-work on their own.

Cultural Values
Celebrating festivals and rituals is a way to teach children to appreciate the rich traditions of the Indian culture. Be it Diwali, Holi or Ganesha Chaturthi, these festivals bring together the children of the hostels into a world of joy, colours and knowledge.

Celebrations
Not just festivals, we celebrate birthdays of the children in most of our hostels across India.

Habit
Sloka Chanting is part of everyday life. Children are taught and made to chant every morning. Certainly, it reflects in their personality.

Health
Health camps are organised twice a year for the students living in the hostel. Since they come from economically poor backgrounds, we are giving them nutritional salts to free them from deficiency of micro nutrients and minerals.

Environment
The mission of Swachh Bharat, an initiative of PM Modi is followed across our hostels. Students are taught not only to keep their surroundings clean but also to spread awareness of a clean environment.

Wellness
Yoga is a mandatory part of their daily rituals. The children today are better aware of its benefits and have embraced it beautifully.

Celebration
Students participate in all festivals including Raksha Bandhan, Diwali, Gandhi Jayanti and Holi and celebrate them in a grand and enthusiastic manner.

Donor Visit
Donors visit often and many a time they share their affection for the children by donating in kind such as new clothes, books, furniture, water purifier and alike or sponsor special meals for the children during their birthdays or anniversaries. These are the occasions when the children get to spend time with the people who have helped to bring about a difference in their lives.
Academics
Most of the students are showing an improvement in their academic performance. Many of them have even started setting goals for themselves.

Sustainable Development
Children are taught the importance of sustainable means. Acting as ambassadors of value-based education, they take back this essential knowledge wherever they go. It spreads to their home in the rural corners of India and across the local community.

Sports
Alongside education, their mental happiness and satisfaction has led to an increase in their interest to participate in competitions and sports sessions at school.

Celebration
Celebrating rituals and festivals give the future generation insights into the rich Indian heritage and culture. So, every festival is a grand affair in the hostel where children take part to organise and celebrate together. Students participate in all festivals including Raksha Bandhan, Diwali, Gandhi Jayanti, Holi with utmost enthusiasm.

Culture
Students enjoy chanting the slokas everyday in the morning. In the evenings, they are encouraged to read story books on Indian folklore and mythology to help them know their own culture.

Participation
Good grooming and honing of their skills in the hostel has also helped them to be more active and participate in annual programmes in their schools.
